Alma Mater

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
As we sing our grateful song,
Proud are we for thee and prouder
That to Lancaster we belong.
School days filled with joy and laughter
Soon will be a memory.
May they teach us to be braver
As we face our destiny.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Help us now to prove our worth,
As we strive to do thee honor,
Garden spot of all the earth.
Through the years our foes discerning,
Red and black—our flag we'll fly
O'er the best in sport and learning.
Hail to thee, McCaskey High.

"The Importance Of US"

Amid civil-rights demonstrations and "teach-ins" supporting and opposing the United States' policy in Viet Nam, the 1966 yearbook staff chose to record the many changes that have occurred at McCaskey during the high-school years of the senior class. Even tho President John F. Kennedy was assassinated in November 1963, his concern for the development of youth continued to emphasize the "Importance of Us" to the future.

Various factors have caused innovations in our McCaskey life. The increased need for higher education resulted in a seven-period day, characterized by the addition of more fourth-year language studies, a three-year required social-studies curriculum, the Lancaster English Enrichment Program, courses in advanced biology and chemistry, higher mathematics, as well as the necessity of sixteen credits for graduation.

Modernization of teaching methods resulted in a laboratory in the language department, driver-simulating machines in the new safety-education room, and educational television in Concert Hall.

With the increased student and faculty enrollment, the administrative staff was enlarged. S. Ernest Kilgore, former dean of boys, was promoted to director of guidance of the city schools. Another dean of girls was appointed in 1963-64 and two more men in 1964-65. One of the latter resigned and was replaced in March of 1966. "Dean" Kilgore was replaced by "Head Counselor" Robert V. King. To enable the counselors to better advise the sophomores, SCAT STEP tests were administered. An office manager was employed. Data-processing equipment began handling attendance records, student report cards, and student schedules.

Other changes over the three-year period included the transferral of clubs to the end of the day, the elimination of daily devotions and Bible reading, and the assignment of eighth period to one teacher. Our band performed on national television and played at the World's Fair in New York. The class of 1965 was the first to have its commencement at Franklin and Marshall College instead of at McCaskey. Girls received permission to participate in interscholastic sports.

A new superintendent of schools was appointed, and a new position of director of secondary schools was created. From September 1963 till June 1966, the school board had 16 different members, five of whom have served during the past three years.

At McCaskey, this past year has been a "year of hospitalization"—with five teachers spending extended time in the hospital. A third teacher was added to the special-education department in January. (The second had been added in 1964.) One teacher was married at Christmas; one died in January.

After 35 years, Boyd L. Sponaugle retired from coaching football. A department head was added for foreign languages. A new dramatics director was appointed. The social committee was assigned to only one counselor; an audio-visual aids instructor was named; a new school newspaper adviser was designated. Other positions to which different teachers were named were that of locker supervisor, cheerleader and majorette advisers; swimming and head football coaches; and honor-society adviser. Substitute teachers were necessary for one who resigned to teach in a college and for Franklin R. Marsh, who became coordinator of Federal and State education programs in Lancaster.

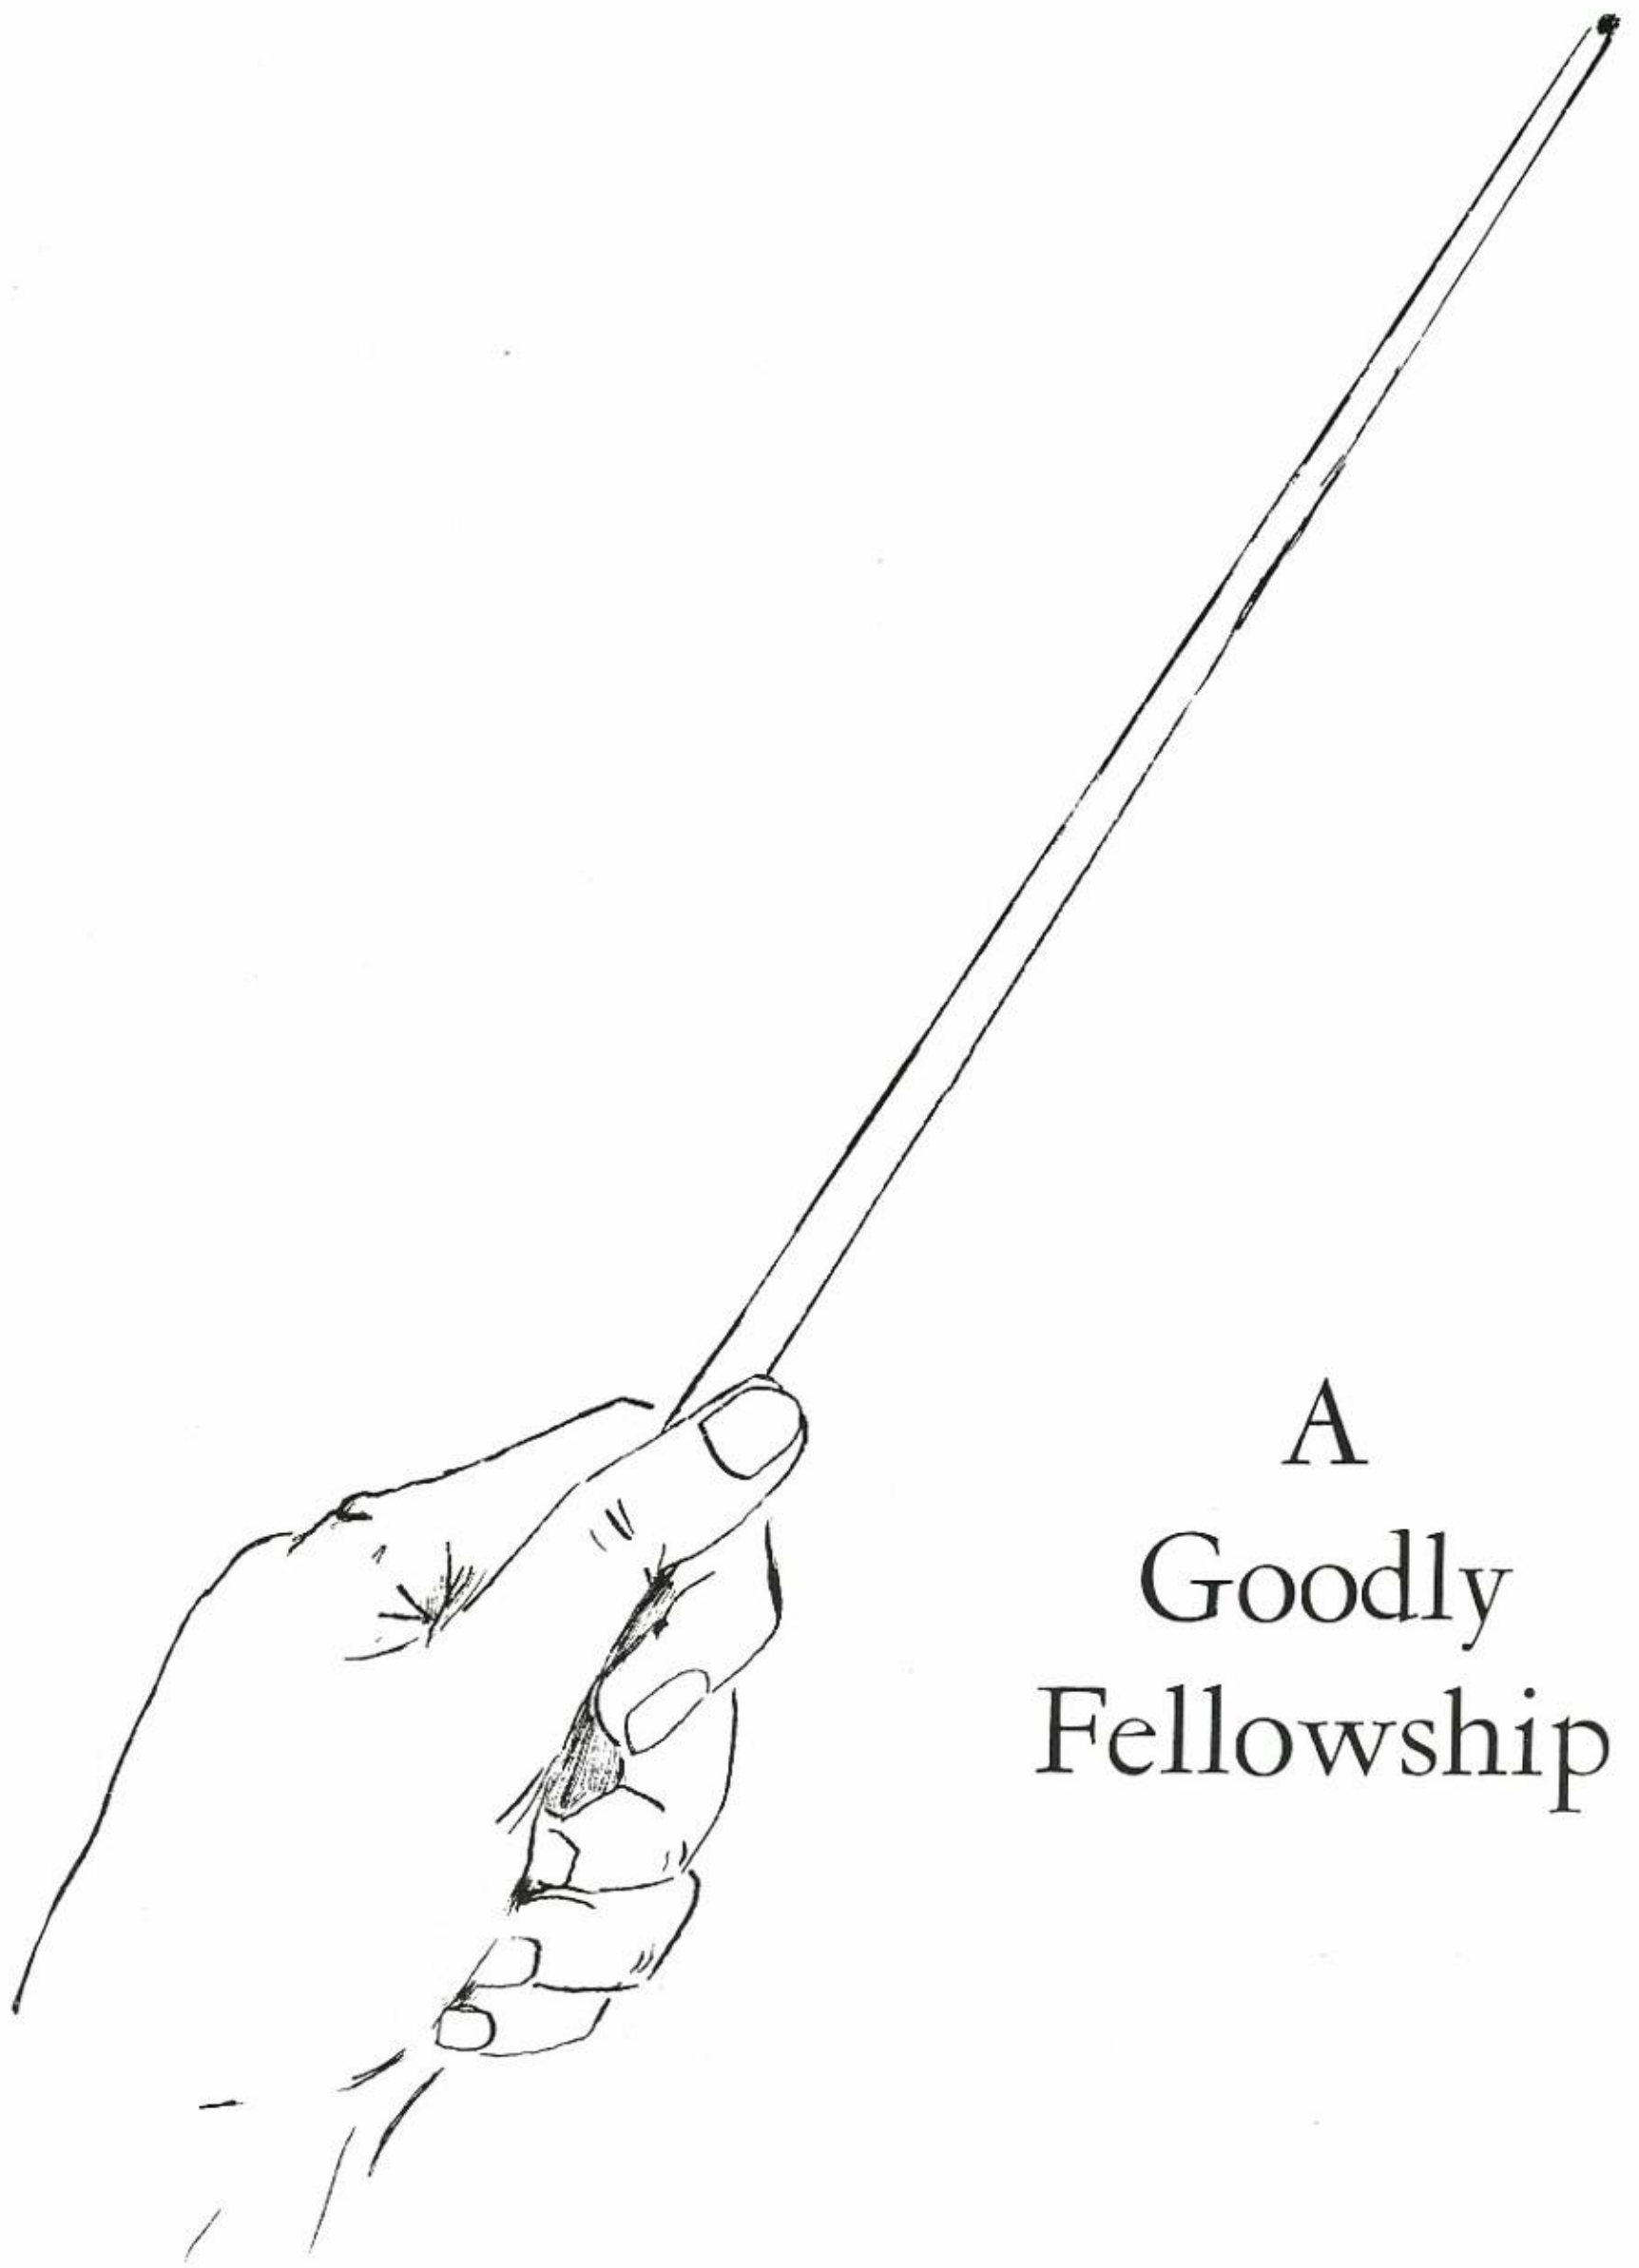

Now, tho we of the senior class are part of the past, future McCaskeyites may also realize the importance of the years from September 1963 to June 1966.

In Memoriam

January 24, 1966, Miss Phyllis I. Wolgemuth, one of the members of the McCaskey family, bade farewell to "A Goodly Fellowship." She was a graduate of Donegal High School, class of 1957, and the Bob Jones University, class of 1961. She received her Master's degree from Temple University in August, 1965. A dedicated business teacher of typing and arithmetic book-keeping at McCaskey for one and one-half years, Miss Wolgemuth originally taught at Depford High School in New Jersey.

Respected and admired by teachers and students, she was a generous and unselfish person who willingly gave of her time to help others. Miss Wolgemuth, who respected the rights of everyone, possessed strong convictions and high ideals. Her untimely death was a great loss to the school.

Crossing The Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out of the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark.

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

—Alfred, Lord Tennyson

ECHO Illustrates Changes At McCaskey

Advised by Miss Violet B. Weber, a staff of 35 seniors combined the idea of sketches of working hands with the theme illustrating all the changes in McCaskey life since the arrival of the class in September, 1963, as sophomores.

Since art work was needed, staff member Mary

Rick enlisted the aid of junior Donna Devine to make sketches of the hands on divider and end pages. In mechanical-drawing class, Michael Aument and James Albright ruled layout sheets on which photographs of seniors and the faculty were pasted.

VIDETTE Informs Students And Teachers

Every two weeks the students of McCaskey unconsciously pick up their issues of the VIDETTE, never realizing that two hectic weeks of reporting, photographing, sketching layouts, and copy-reading are spent in preparing the publication.

The VIDETTE staff, advised by John M. Silknetter, publishes 16 bi-weekly issues each year. The staff begins working during the summer to prepare a free paper for each student on the first day of school. In addition to writing, some members report news and sports results on the Scholastic Hi-Jinx radio program; some also edit the school football programs.

This year the VIDETTE received its fourteenth consecutive Keystone Award presented by the Pennsylvania School Press Association.

Staffers Receive Quill And Scroll Honors

Selected by John M. Silknetter and Miss Violet B. Weber, advisers to the VIDETTE and ECHO, respectively, 38 seniors and 13 juniors qualified for membership in the Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society that recognizes outstanding service by high-school journalists.

A pre-requisite for membership is that a candidate must rank in the upper third of his class. VIDETTE members also contribute 100 inches of copy or its equivalent in work; while ECHO staffers participate in copywriting, proofreading, typing, art work, and record-keeping.

Social Committee Sponsors Record-Breaking Dances

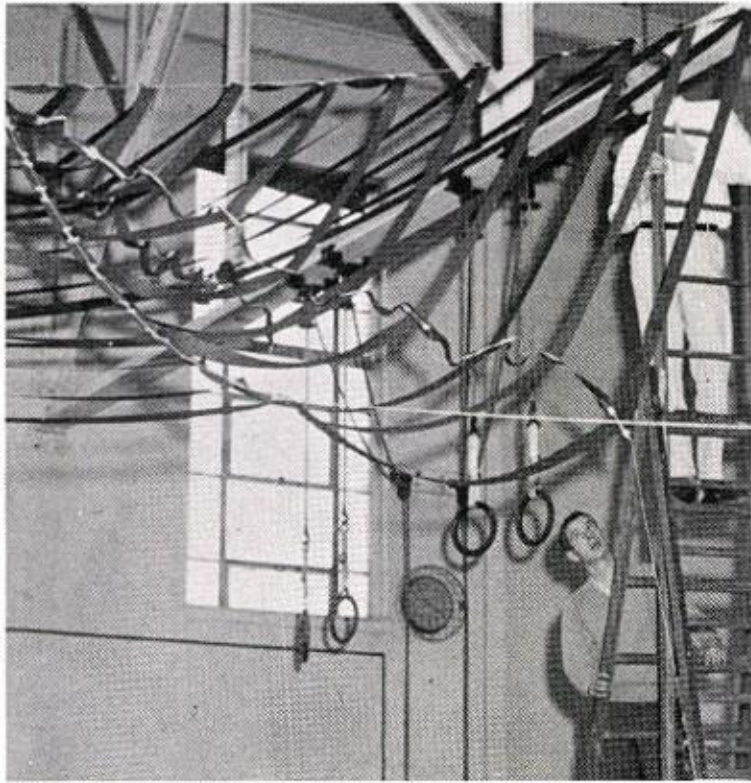

Advised solely by Miss Sara Jane Caum for the first time, each dance has had attendance of over 500. Opening in October with "Devil's Discotheque," the committee followed with "Big Red Romp" in November. In December came "Holly-baloo," followed in February by "Batman's Bugaloo" and in March by "Mumbo-Jumbo Mambo." The Prom, the biggest social event of the year, was held June 3, in charge of the Junior Prom Committee.

National Thespian Society Increases Membership

The National Thespian Society, functioning under the guidance of its new adviser Morris E. Krape and faculty assistants Miss Dorothy E. Schock and Foster T. Augustine, added 28 new members this year. Named for the Greek actor Thespis, McCaskey's troupe began in 1948.

To obtain membership in the society, stagecrafters must work 100 hours. Actors must receive 10 points, which are based on the importance and length of the role. For each additional 10 points, or the equivalent for a stagecrafters, another star is earned.

Musicians Gain Local And National Recognition

Members of the Marching Band traveled to Philadelphia this year for their second consecutive performance at an Eagles' game and third appearance on national television. The band offered selections including "Across the Field," "The Sweetest Sounds," "Everything's Coming Up Roses," and "On McCaskey," then combined with the Eagles' "Sound of Brass" for the finale. "An Evening with the McCaskey Band" was presented on April 2 featuring Eugene J. Polaski as guest conductor. The Band Parents Organization honored the band members at a banquet on April 30. Geoffrey Davis, Susan Reidenbach, Eileen Reitz, Charles Sommers, and Jeffrey Thomas attended the District Band Festival. Jeffrey also attended the Region Three All-State Band Festival in February in Berwyn, Pennsylvania.

The dance band, known as the Mellowmen, appeared at Conestoga Valley and Lampeter-Strasburg High Schools and Reynolds Junior High School.

McCaskey Orchestra Performs For Community Audiences

The 38-member McCaskey orchestra is student-directed this year by Joseph Gaskins; officers are Donna King, president; Carol Whitaker, vice-president; Cynthia Leeds, secretary; and Jeffrey Thomas, representative from student council.

A brass ensemble entertained numerous civic groups and hospital patients with Christmas music during the holiday season. Members of this group included Dennis Boyd, John Byers, Geoffrey Davis, Joseph Gaskins, Thomas Gibson, Douglas Myers, Douglas Norris, Gerald Shindle, and Charles Sommers.

Orchestra members featured in the band concert were Frederick Purdy on the trombone and Eileen Reitz on the clarinet.

The "pit orchestra," consisting of 29 members, performed with the glee club in the spring musicale "Camelot."

Choristers Perform For School And Community

Accompanied by Miss Dorothy E. Schock, Michael Flick (Sir Lancelot), Anne Brinser (Guinevere), and Mark Stevenson (Arthur) rehearse for their roles in the 1966 musicale, "Camelot."

Directed and advised by Miss Dorothy E. Schock, the Choristers are selected from the senior glee club on the basis of ability and service. Accompanied by Susan Tollinger and Stephen Gring on the piano, and guitarists Carol Lawrence and Jane Lees, the Choristers have performed both religious and secular numbers, ranging from folk and popular arrangements to classical ones.

Because of their excellent performances, they have often been asked to reappear at various civic, social, and service functions including the Lancaster County Home, the Elks' Club, the Odd Fellows' Hall, and the Mount Joy Community Center. Special features of their Christmas activities included taping a television program of seasonal music and Carol Lawrence's performance of her original number, "The Christmas Song."

McCaskey Glee Clubs Present Music From Christmas to "Camelot"

Under the direction of Miss Dorothy E. Schock, the McCaskey Glee Clubs presented two concerts and staged a musicale. Stephen Gring and Susan Tollinger served as accompanists for the senior glee club while Naidine Peiffer filled the position for the junior girls' glee club.

Held on December 19, 1965, the annual Christmas concert opened with the traditional candlelight processional and featured soloists Elwin

Boots and Karen Kraft. February brought selections from the Lenten portion of Handel's "Messiah." The combined glee clubs presented Lerner and Lowe's "Camelot" in May. For the first time, Miss Donna Mae Couy assisted Miss Schock as dramatics adviser. Beate Bratz and Donna Hartman were choreographers, and Foster T. Augustine's Stagecrafters and J. Irvin Shelly's shop classes designed the scenery.

McCaskey Benefits From Students' Volunteer Work

Under the direction of Foster T. Augustine, the Stagecrafters Guild designs and paints scenery for school productions. The club recently split to accommodate its large membership—one group operating during club period and one after school. Membership is based on dedication and willingness to work.

The Student Library Staff, supervised by Miss Dorothea E. Wolfe and Mrs. Izora Bowermaster, assist in the efficient operation of the library. Student library aides help in processing pamphlets, books, and magazines, shelving, filing pictures, checking and typing cards, and arranging eye-catching displays.

Students Present Swedish Christmas Program

A new teacher, James S. Ernst, joined the Special Education Department this year. John B. Shenk, Joseph J. Woitko, and Mr. Ernst teach English, reading, mathematics, social studies—including history, civics, and world cultures—and science. Drawing subjects are also taught, including lettering, mechanical drawing, and sketching by the use of various art media. Assisting in this field is Foster T. Augustine, arts and crafts teacher. In addition to the Santa Lucia program, the department organized a picnic for the end of the school year.

Led by Joseph Clark, members of the special education class sing traditional Christmas carols for invited guests.

Jayvee Gridders Snap Loss Skein

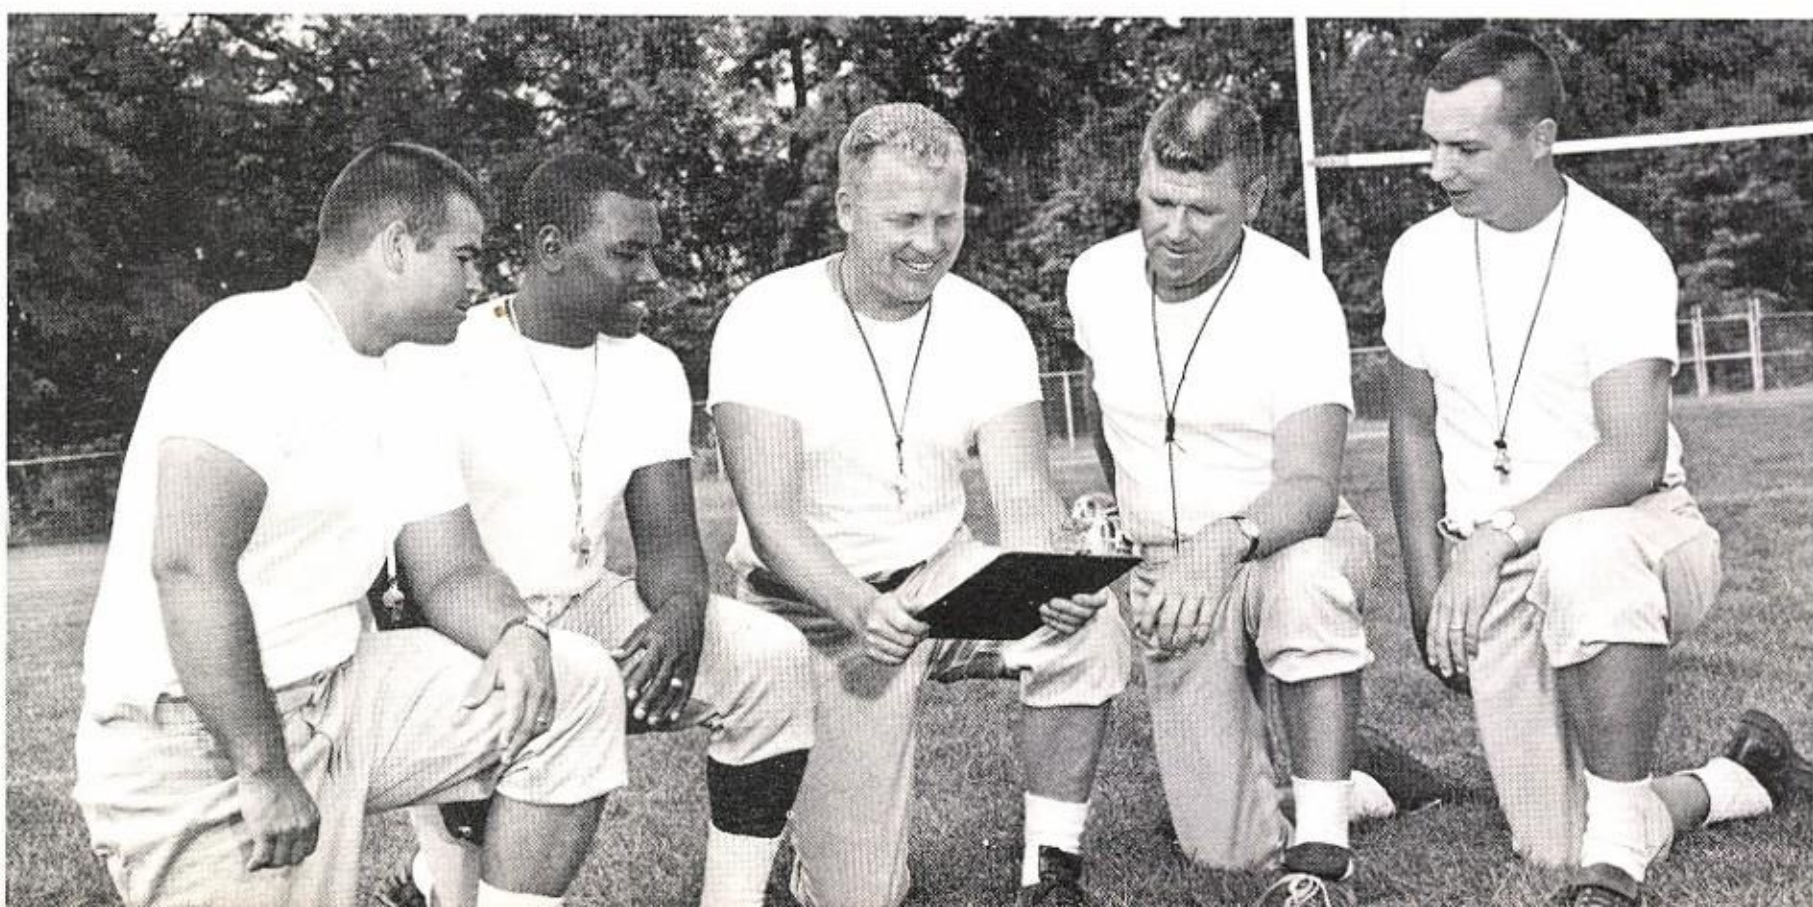

The fall of 1965 saw two major developments in junior varsity football. First was the addition of Frederick M. Reed to the coaching staff; he shared the responsibilities with Bernard N. Santaniello. Secondly, a 12-game losing streak was terminated with a 7-6 victory over Reading. After Greg Gray had scored from eight yards out, Jeff Horst kicked the game-winning extra point.

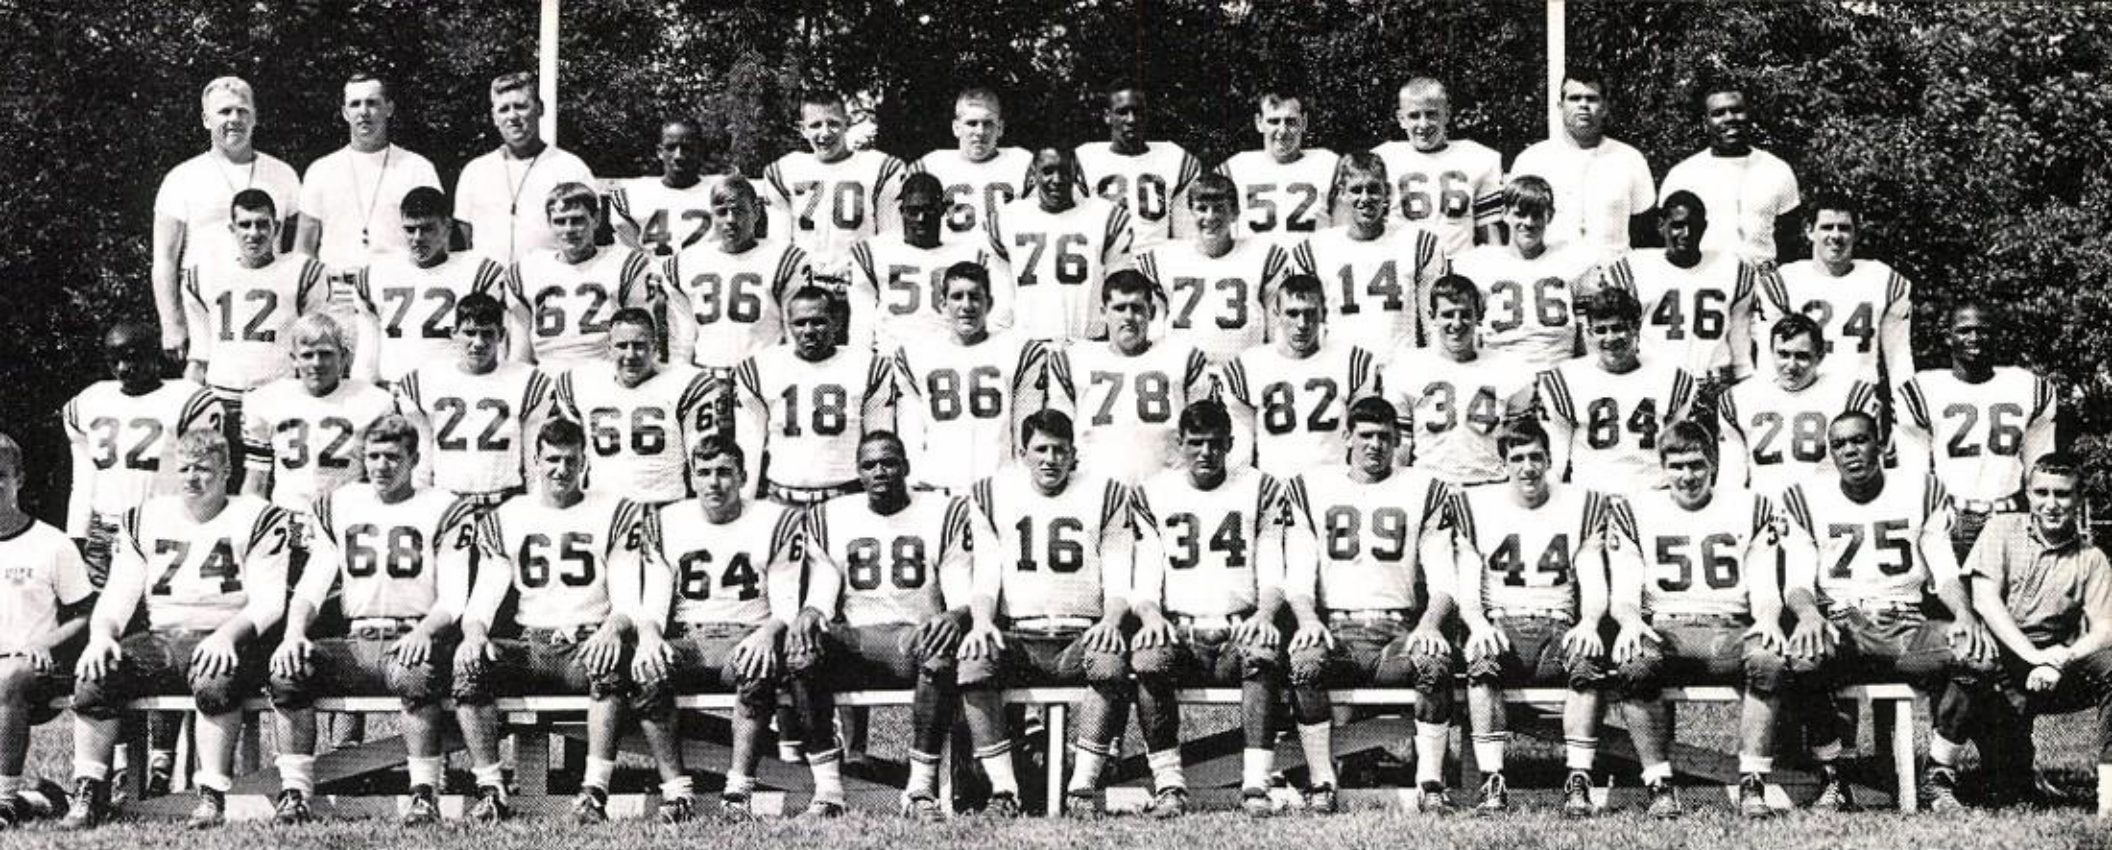

But, hampered by fumbles and penalties, the jayvee forces could manage only a single win against seven defeats.

Robert V. King, elevated to the head coach position after nine years as an assistant, led the Tornado to a 7-3 season. The gridders achieved third place in Central Penn competition, highest finish by a McCaskey team since 1962.

Dave Smith shattered all school passing records, while Brent Hawkins received honorable mention on the All-State and "Big 33" squads. Tim Kauffman led an aggressive defense, instrumental in obtaining a 14-7 upset win over Steelton.

Hawkins, who caught seven touchdown passes, was named to the League All-Star squad. Smith and Dick Frantz were accorded second-team status.

The 1965 edition of cross-country witnessed the end of a 61-meet victory string. The Red and Black harriers, coached by H. Grant Hurst, recorded a 7-win, 7-loss season. McCaskey competed for the first time in the Lancaster County League.

Underclassmen Greg Rodgers, Pete Shelley, Mike Bowers and Bob Brown paced the squad. Junior star Rodgers completed an undefeated season in dual meets, as well as copping top honors in the All-League run-off.

Victor Boyer and Robert Cummings were elected co-captains at the close of the season.

James J. Neely's 35th year of coaching resulted in a 7-win, 4-loss, 2-tie record.

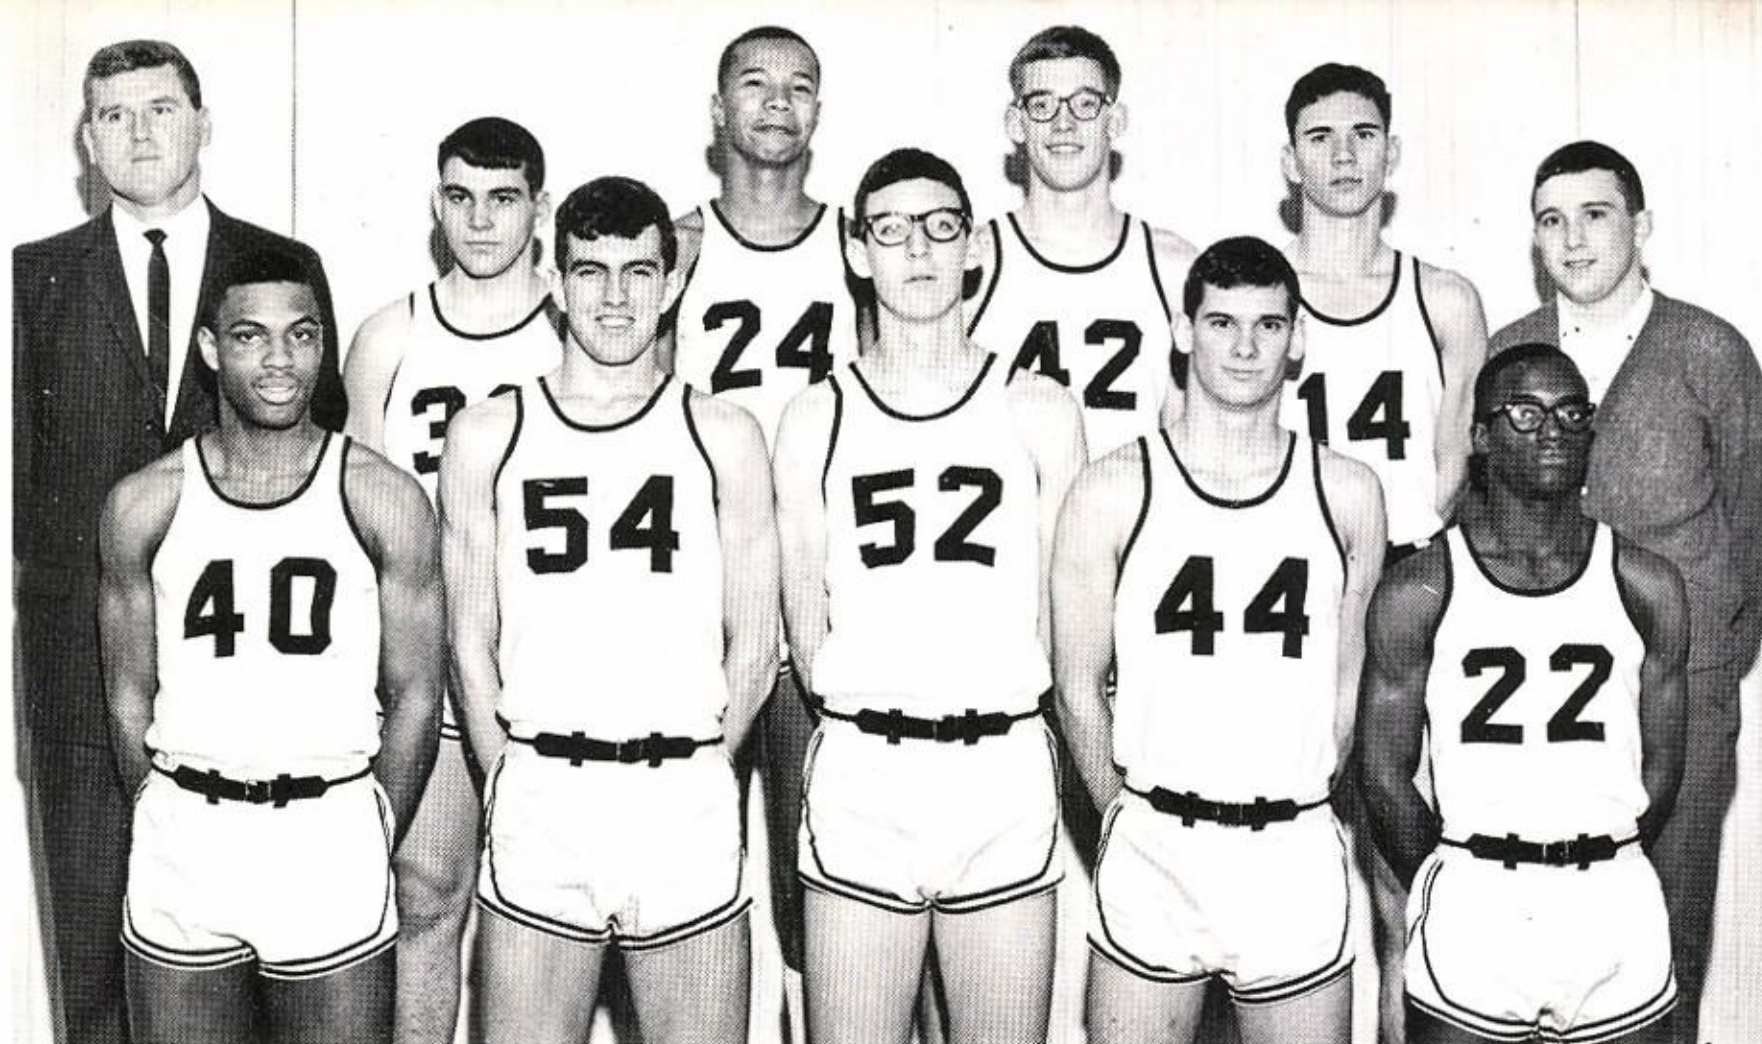

The Tornado finished a strong third in the six-team Lancaster County League. Highlight of the season was a 2-1 victory over Garden Spot, county and district champions.

Leading the booters with 15 goals, John Morris was named to the County All-Star squad for the third consecutive year. Ed Gochenauer, Greg Pennell, Rick Shultz and Mike McKonly received second-team recognition. The J. J. Neely Award, symbolic of the qualities admired by the head soccer coach, was awarded to Jim Coleman.

The jayvees, under the guidance of G. Richard Bechtel, boasted a 9-1 slate.

Varsity Dribblers Win 11, Lose 11

Hampered by the loss of six lettermen, the Red and Black hoopsters split their 22-game schedule. The forces of Coach Charles R. Miller combined identical 4-win, 5-loss records in Central Penn League play. Four victories and two defeats in nonleague competition evened the squad's mark at 11-11.

Greg Pennell and Mike Conlin, only returning lettermen, formed the nucleus of this year's squad. Dave Nixon and Brent Hawkins and underclassmen Pete Shelley, Earl Boots, and Mike McKonly attempted to fill the gaps made by graduation. Pennell grabbed 174 rebounds to lead the team with a 8.3 average. Shelley established a 14.0 point scoring pace to finish eighth among league shooters.

Films of the Reading game were shown in assembly, marking a "first" in McCaskey basketball.

Reading Victory Tops Jayvee Season

The charges of Coach P. Robert Herr failed to equal last year's mark of 15 and 7. The jayvee courtmen played .500 ball, establishing a 9-9 league record and a seasonal 11-11 slate.

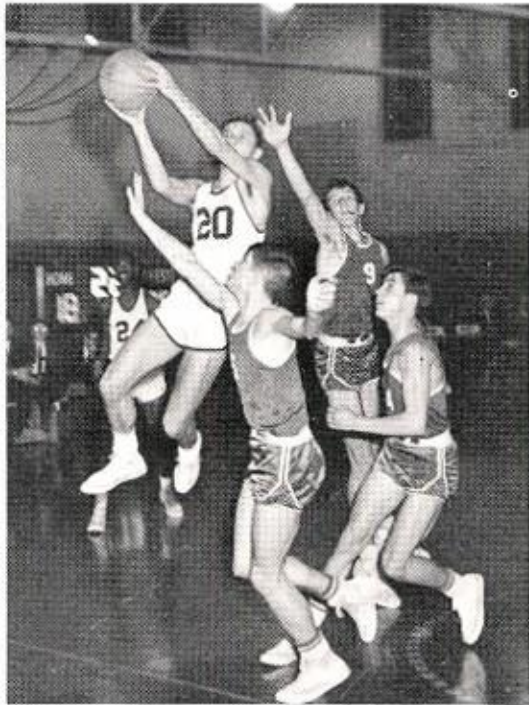

The first half of Central Penn competition saw the Herrmen sweep six of nine games, highlighted by a thrilling 53-49 victory over Reading in overtime. During the latter half, however, the dribblers dropped to a sixth-place finish as they lost six of nine.

Offensively, the Tornado scored 1260 points for a game average of 57.3. Captain Jeff Burger tallied 308 points and pulled down 225 rebounds to lead the squad. Ken Porter, Scott Stout, Daryl Miller, and Darryl Glover rounded out the top five in the scoring department.

Swimmers Compete In New League

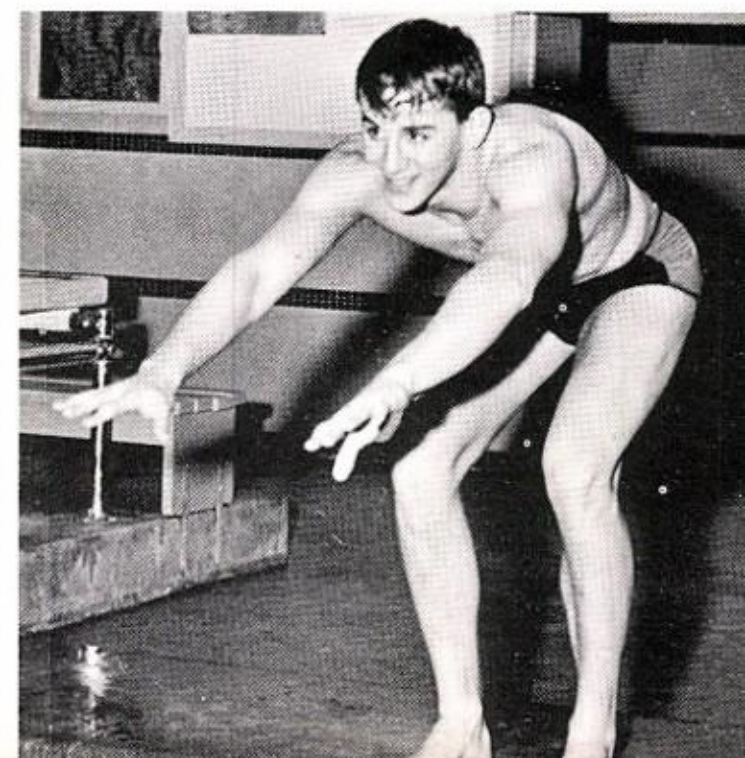

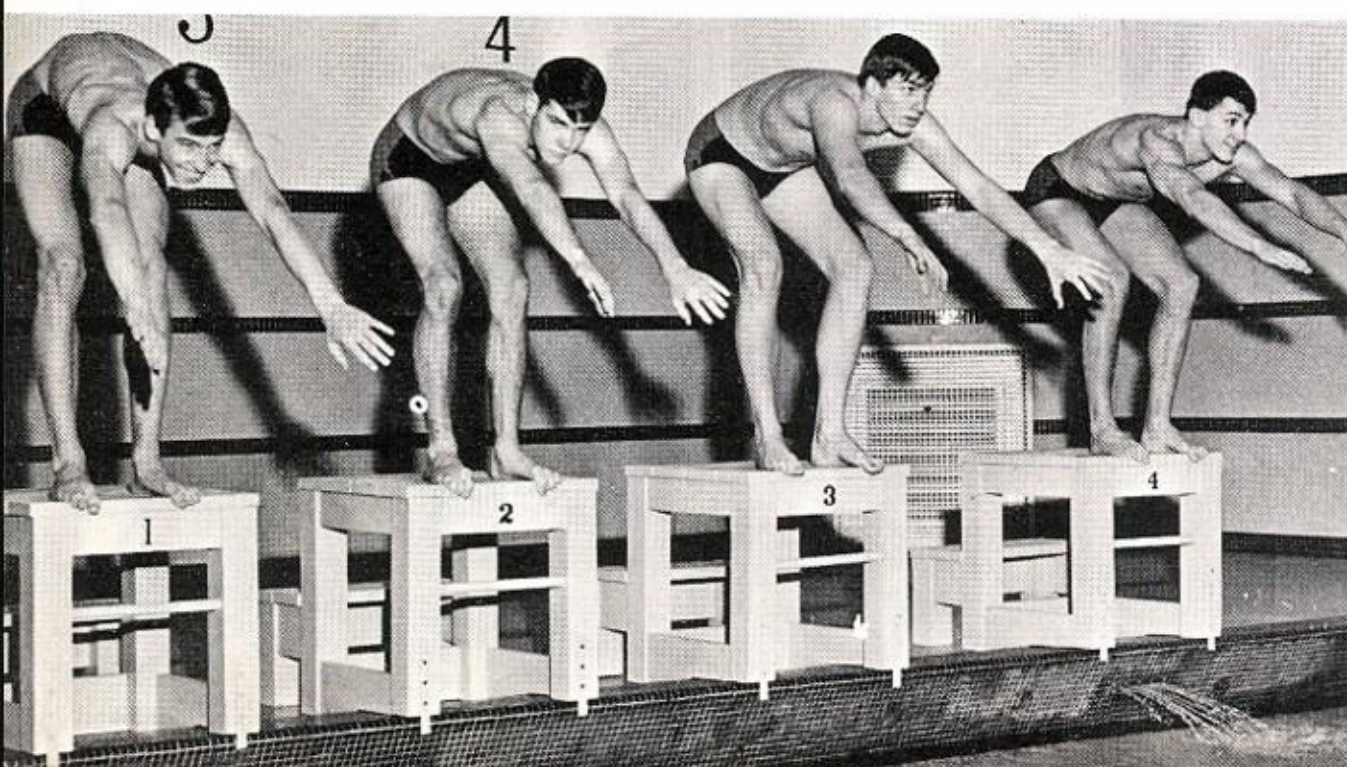

The Tornado tank team completed its season with a record of seven victories and five defeats. Under Coach Gordon A. Kraft and his assistant, Wilbert Dourte, the squad entered the newly-established, 10-team Central Penn Swimming League.

Captain Ned Barnes, scoring a tremendous 85 points to lead the mermen through a successful season, smashed pool records in the 50-yard freestyle and 200-yard individual medley. He also swam to a fourth-place finish in the 100-yard freestyle at the State championships. The school 100-yard breaststroke record was eclipsed by Mike O'Donnell, while Barnes, O'Donnell, Dick Winters, and Dan Flynn established a new school mark in the freestyle relay.

The Red and Black matmen, coached by William C. Piper and Eugene W. Miller, compiled a 4-6 league record and a 4-7 over-all slate. Two matches were lost by one point.

On December 28 and 29 the grapplers competed in the Williamsport Invitational Tournament. Dick Frantz took runnerup honors in the 145-pound division while the squad placed ninth in a field of fourteen teams. This event marked the first time a McCaskey team had participated in a holiday tournament.

In post-season action, Joe Hughson advanced to the sectional finals before meeting defeat. The jayvee matmen enjoyed a successful season of eight wins and two losses.

Racqueteers Seek To Repeat As Champs

Three starters are lost from Coach Earl L. Koth's 1965 Central Penn champions. Bill Schaeffer, who won eight of ten matches against league opponents, is the sole returning letterman. Tom Rohrer, number one player for the jayvees and semifinalist in the March indoor tournament, will provide additional strength. The netmen's schedule includes Hershey, Camp Hill, Susquehanna Township, Hanover, John Harris, York, Central Dauphin East, Cedar Cliff, Central Dauphin, and William Penn.

H. Grant Hurst's jayvee team hopes to better its 4-6 slate against Lancaster County foes.

Bill Schaeffer, Coach Earl L. Koth, and Tom Rohrer display laurels won by the 1965 tennis squad. Tom holds the District #3 trophy while Bill has the William L. Atchley traveling trophy. Due to its perfect 10-0 record, the team also earned a Central Penn League award.

Tornado Nine Eyes Promising Season

Victorious in their initial Central Penn outings, the McCaskey nine anticipates a championship season. On the strength of Dave Smith's home run and seven-hit pitching, the Tornado gained a 5-2 verdict over Steelton on April 5. Coach P. Robert Herr's diamondmen then amassed a 12-hit attack to clobber Hershey 15-2. Junior Ken Porter, pitching his first varsity game, gave up six hits and struck out five. Dick Frantz, Lew Sauders, and Jack Neal each collected two hits. Also on the schedule are Lebanon, John Harris, Milton Hershey, York, and William Penn.

The jayvee stickmen, coached by G. Allen Eckert, defeated Hershey in their first game on April 7. Gary Getz relinquished only three hits while striking out fourteen opponents en route to a 7-0 shutout victory.

McCaskey Thinclads Face Rigorous Central Penn Schedule

Led by co-captains Al Brown and Tony Patterson, the 1966 track and field squad seeks to equal or better last season's mark of seven victories and one defeat. The cindermen, coached by Boyd L. Sponaugle and assistant Daniel W. McGary, are bolstered by the return of three District #3 point-earners. Dan LeVan, who placed second in the high-jump, returns in an effort to shatter his own school standard 6'4½". Patterson, runnerup in the 120-yard high-hurdle event, and Brown, sixth-place finisher in the 180-lows, are back. LeVan and Patterson achieved second and sixth places in their respective events at the State meet.

Due to the surprisingly low turnout of sprinters, the Tornado may meet its nemesis in the dash and relay events. Junior Paul Vaughn carries much of the responsibility in these departments. McCaskey is expected to have somewhat greater strength in field competition as weightmen Wayne Geltz, Barry Pikolas, Brent Hawkins and Jim Evans return. John Coolidge heads a contingent of three experienced pole vaulters. A feature of the 1966 campaign is the addition of the two-mile run and two-mile relay events. The Sponauglemen will meet Central Dauphin, Steelton, York, Central Dauphin East, Lebanon, John Harris, William Penn, and Cedar Cliff.

Kenneth Kopf. Third Row: Robert Long, Glen Lausch, Daniel Trexler, Michael O'Donnell, David Withers, Robert McDivitt.

Linksmen Tee Off To Potential Success

The Red and Black linksmen launched a hopefully successful Central Penn campaign with a 20-0 victory over Lebanon. The contest was played at the Conestoga Country Club, home course for McCaskey's golfers. Seniors Frank Gerlitz and Mike Minney, junior Dave De-Croce, and sophomores Tom Helm and Rich Cavna composed the starting five. Cavna fired an 81 while DeCroce, the only returning letterman, carded an 84. Gerlitz, playing first man, and Helm each took 89 strokes; Minney shot a 96.

Supervised by Coach Edward L. Haller and assistant David J. Myers, the Tornado golfers will face Hershey, Reading, and Wilson also.

Hockey Introduces Interscholastic Sports

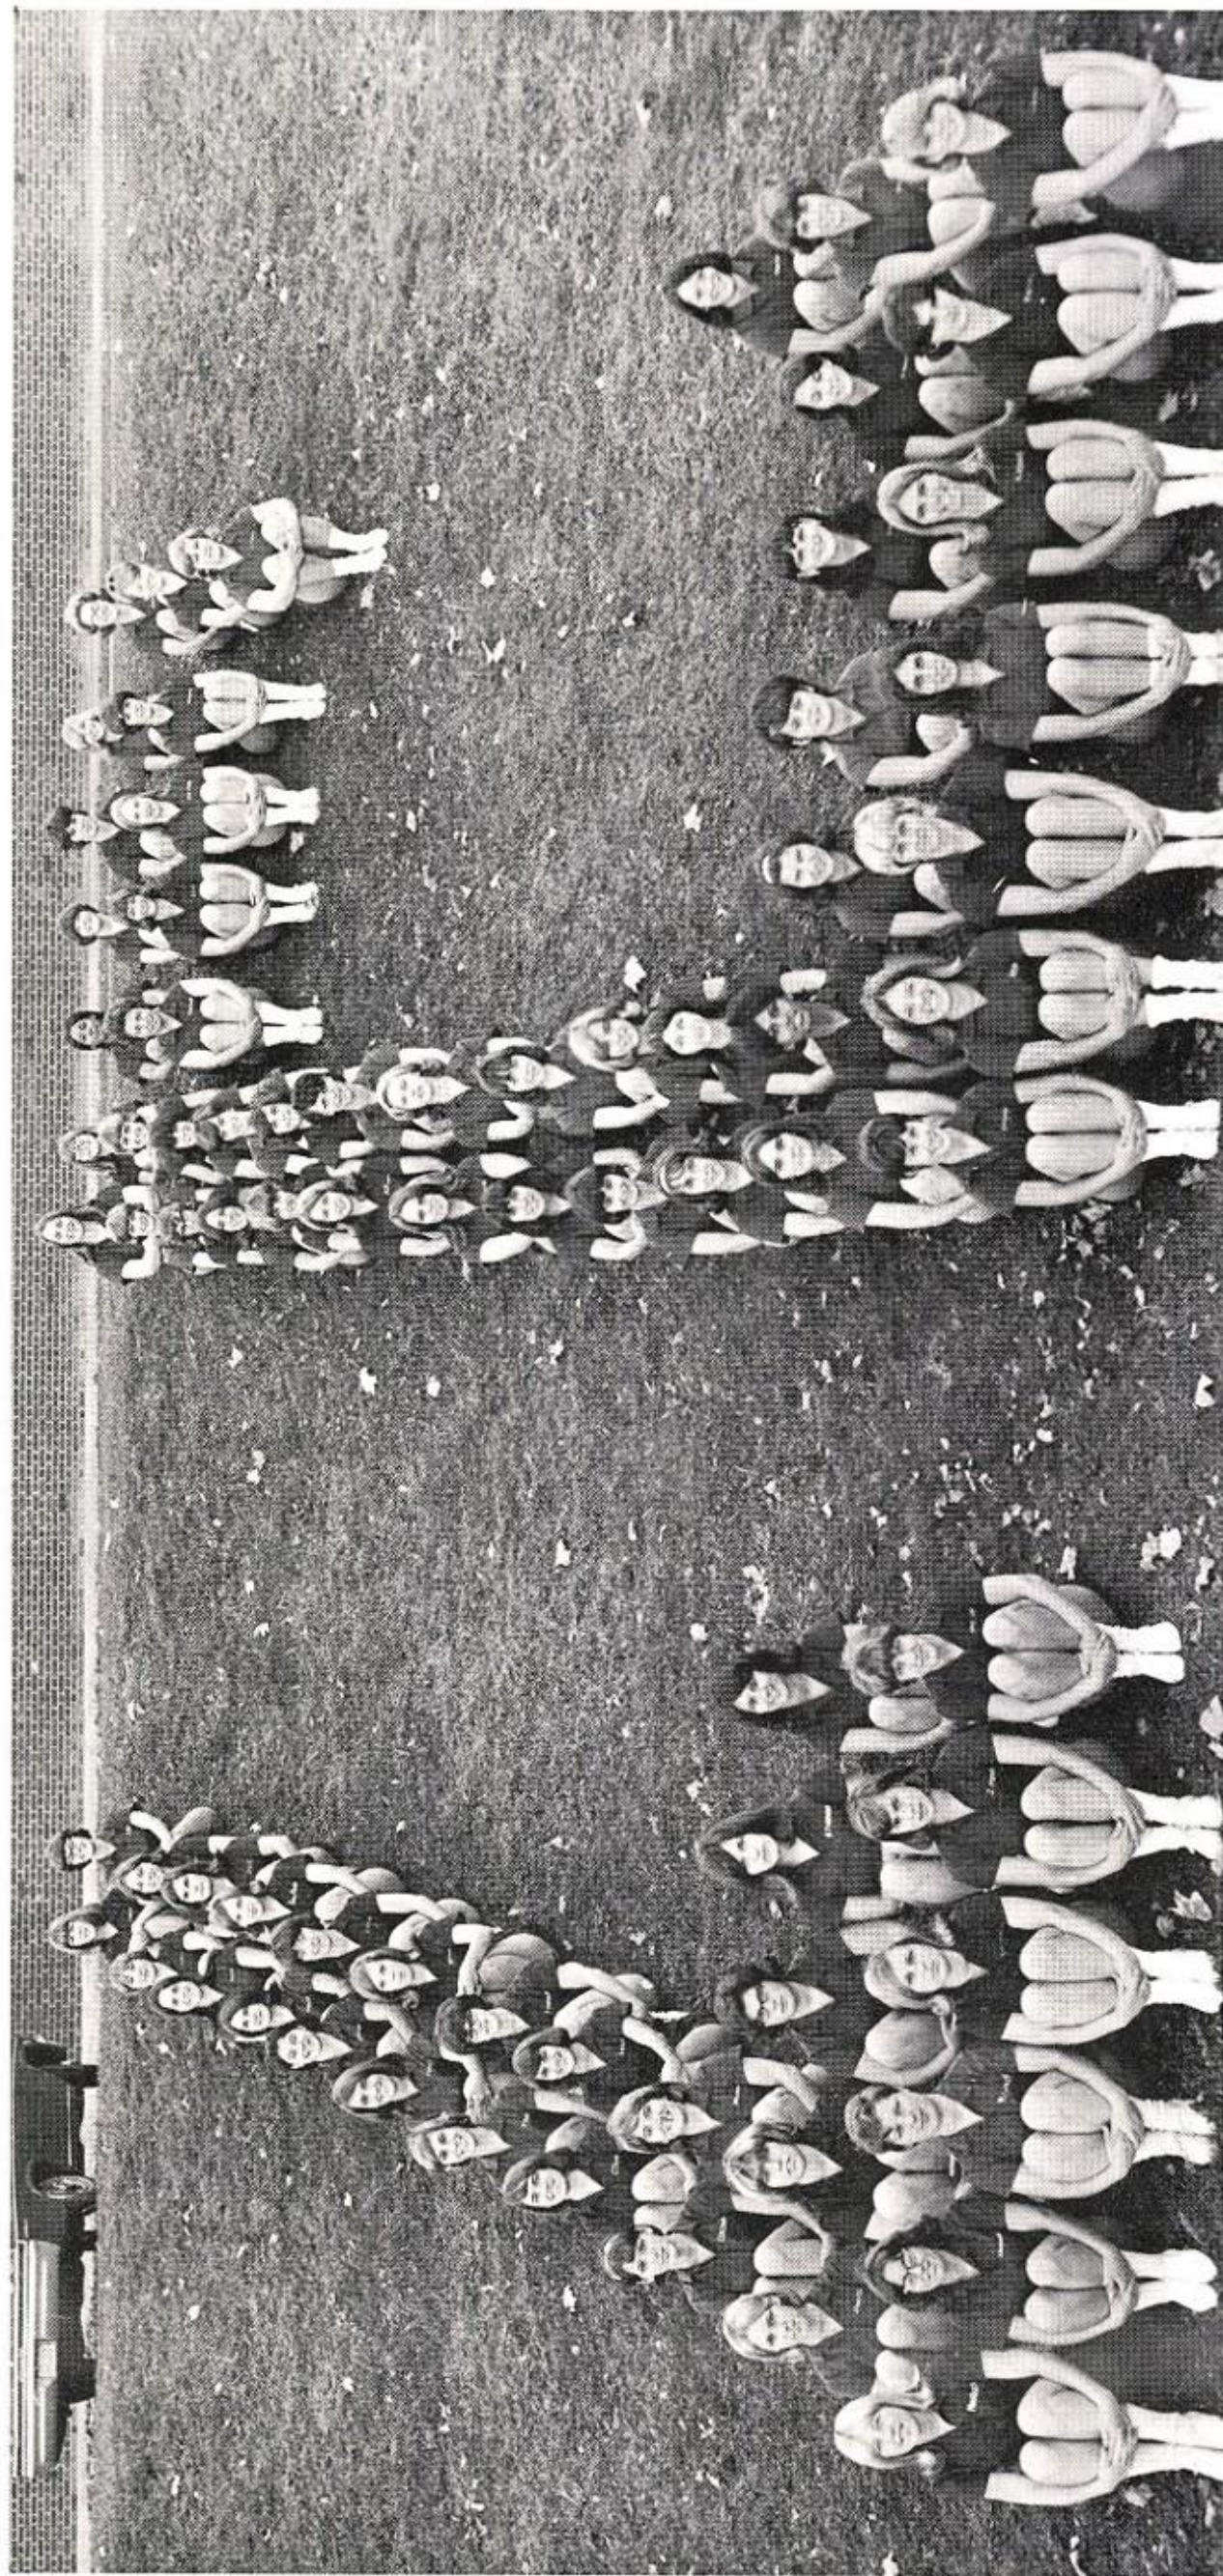

This year, for the first time in its history, McCaskey participated in an interscholastic program for girls' athletics. The varsity field hockey team, competing with girls from Tatnall, Lampeter-Strasburg, Cornwall, Linden Hall, and the Lancaster Country Day School, compiled a record of four wins against four losses. Competing with the same schools, the junior varsity rallied to mark up six wins and two ties.

Basketball Squads Compete In League

This season the girls' varsity basketball squad opposed teams on an interscholastic competitive basis. The basketeers completed a successful season with six wins and three losses. They were victorious over Ephrata, Lancaster Country Day, Linden Hall, Penn Manor, Pequea Valley, and Warwick; and were defeated by Catholic High, twice, and Garden Spot. Deidre DeZercie was high scorer for the year with 150 points and a 16.6 average, followed by Margaret Weaver with 78 and an average of 8.6. The junior varsity rounded out their season with seven wins and two losses. The teams were coached by Mrs. Judith D. Vogt after the departure of Mrs. Carolyn A. Quarles.

McCaskey Gymnasts Dominate County Meet

Approved by the Lancaster City School Board in April, 1965, gymnastics became another sport for interscholastic competition.

Sixteen McCaskey students qualified to participate in the Lancaster County Championship Gymnastics Meet. Georgette Hart took first place in floor exercise. Darlene Downer won honors in floor exercise and vaulting, and Elizabeth Ziegler placed third in the uneven parallel bars. Mrs. D. Marian Franck serves as adviser for the McCaskey girls and the Lancaster Recreation Association team.

On Floor: Jack Seiple, Ronald Long. Top: Stephen Meserole, Scott Howett, John Coolidge, Daryl Parmer, Steele Downer. McCaskey's male gymnasts competed in dual meets for the Lancaster Recreation Association. They also participated in the City-County Gym Show at F & M, winning first place in each boy's event. Ron Long asserted his claim as Lancaster's all-around gymnast by excelling in the side horse, parallel bars, horizontal bar, vaulting, and still rings. John Coolidge was victorious in both the still rings and vaulting events while Jack Seiple copped top honors in the floor exercise. Daryl Parmer achieved third place finishes in vaulting and parallel bars. Steele Downer won runnerup position in still rings; third place in the trampoline competition went to Scott Howett. Eleven students qualified for the gymnastic competition at Pennsylvania State University on April 2, 1966.

Our Times

After school, Gordon Slaugh waits impatiently to use the telephone in the school lobby while Nancy Wohlsen chatters on, unruffled by his complaints.

For the first time in several years, the senior girls' team (Barbara Haines, Michell Smith, and Nancy Koelsch) outscored the senior boys' team (Neil Howett, Jeffrey Forster, and Frederick Purdy) to win the annual General Information Quiz Assembly sponsored by the Student Council. Shooters Deidre DeZercie and Peter Shelley (standing at left) added bonus points by foul-shooting as correct answers were given.

Student Council Work Covers Broad Fields

Rick, Marianne Hooper, Linda Snyder, Jacqueline Aukamp. This year's adviser is Mrs. Colleen Nophske.

Cheerleaders And Majorettes Arouse School Spirit

The 1965-66 majorette squad, headed by Marian Berberian with Georgette Hart as featured twirler, appeared with the McCaskey Marching Band in the half-time performance of the Eagles-Steelers game in Philadelphia.

The cheerleading squad, under the direction of Miss Sandra L. Shanfelder, cheered at varsity and junior varsity events, constructed signs, distributed pep pins, conducted pep assemblies, and decorated the stadium.

Susan Martin, Susan McCormick, Gail Sensenig, Carol Rees, Cynthia Burger, Toni King, Lynn Keener. The mascot is Lanky McLanc.

Georgette Hart, McCaskey's Halloween Queen, poses with fellow candidates Carol Lawrence, Marian Berberian, and Louise Weeks. Georgette, for her winning act, twirled various Halloween symbols. Accompanying herself on the guitar, Carol sang one of her own compositions. Marian performed a modern dance routine, and Louise sang an original song. Georgette competed with girls from other schools in the Schpooknacht contest.

Halloween Contestants Display Talents

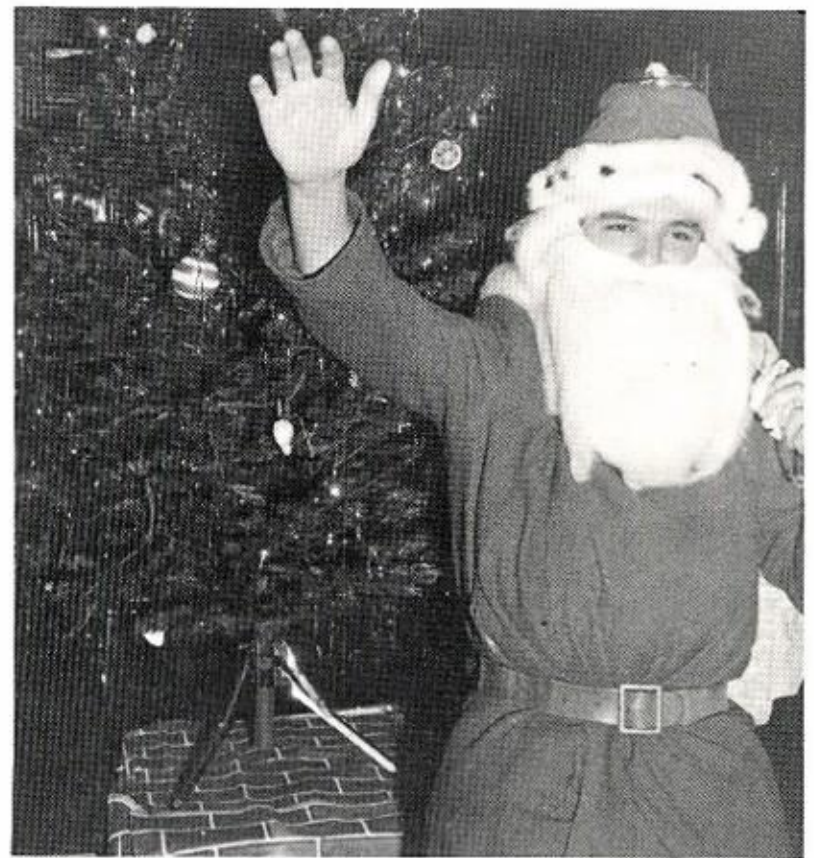

Halloween contestants who participated in the junior assembly were Marsha Reidenbach, Barbara Potts, and Linda Snyder. For her act, Marsha executed a tap dance routine, and Barbara sang. Dressed as Mary Poppins, Linda performed a twirling routine. The candidates were judged on talent, beauty, and personality.

mas ball. Right: Portraying Santa Claus, Timothy Kauffman extends Christmas greetings to the McCaskey family.

Christmas Spirit Invades McCaskey

Left: Honor Society member, Nancy Koelsch, stands ready to assist Miss Janice L. Reed, who is explaining a schedule to sophomore Patricia Trees on orientation day

Right—Front Row: Seniors Sarah Rudolph, Jean Rineer, Mary Ellen Rahm, (standing) Scott Miller, and James Sensenig pause on the McCaskey campus for a chat before the tardy bell rings.

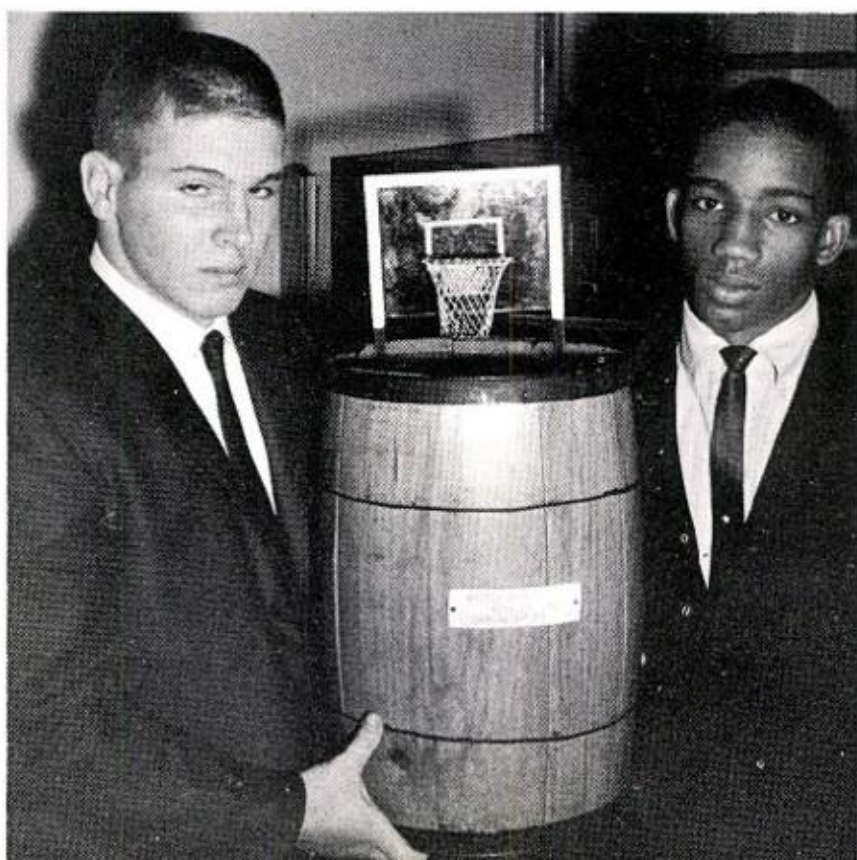

"Get in there and fight!" exhorts line coach Charles R. Miller as Barry Pikolas (72), Dave Williams (38), and Tony Patterson (48) are sent into gridiron action. Equip-

Fall Or Spring, Sport Is King

Left: Rosanne Miller, VIDETTE news editor, shows copies of the McCaskey newspaper to Miss Ann Landers who had just addressed an all-school assembly on March 17 at 9 A.M. Miss Landers, whose advice column appears daily in 666 newspapers throughout the world, delivered a light but to the point speech concerning the problems of today's teenager.

Right: In an assembly skit geared to enliven school spirit for the John Harris football game, James Snyder narrates a parody on "Little Red Riding Hood" in which tri-captain Brent Hawkins saves "Little Red Victory" (Karen Kraft) and Granny (Jane Lees) from the clutches of the "Harriser" (Donald Horst).

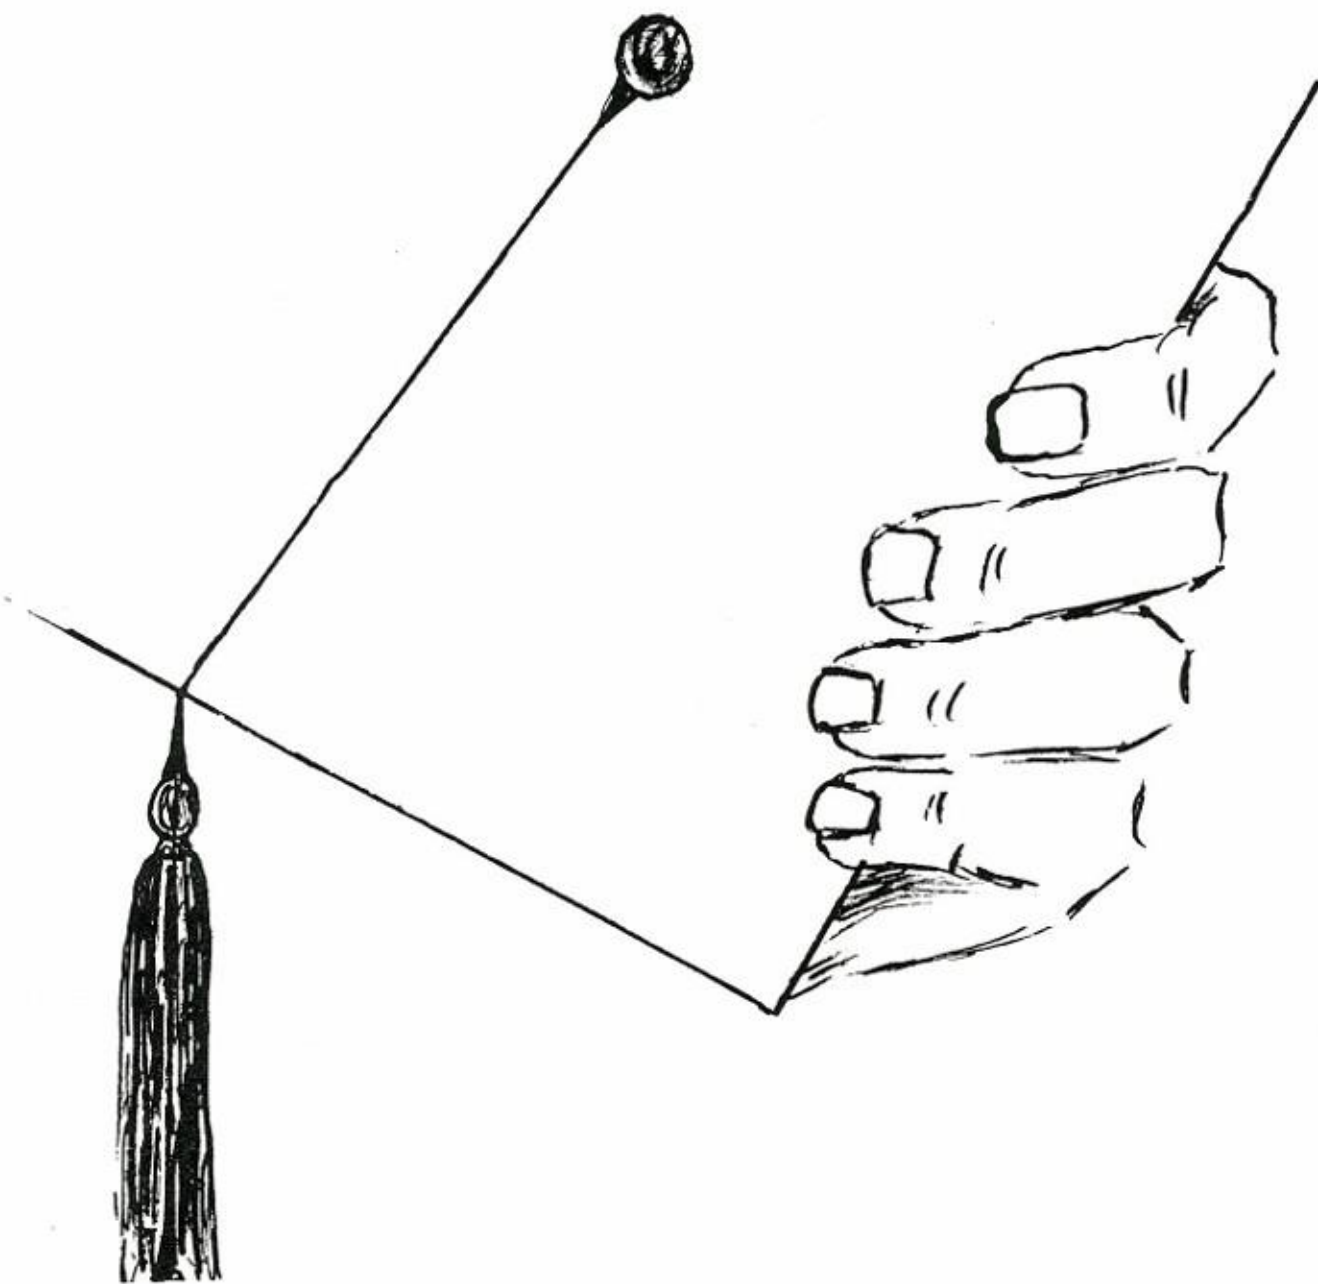

Students Make Public Appearances

McCaskeyites Gain Community Recognition

Left: Dennis Weber exhibits his home chemistry laboratory, valued at over $800. During the summer of 1965, he spent six weeks at Bucknell University under the auspices of the National Science Foundation. Right: First and second place winners in the DAR essay contest, Beate Bratz and Jeffrey Lively, examine the winning entry entitled "Washington's Legacy of Advice to Americans."

Students Excel In Diverse Interests

foreign exchange student, models a costume formerly worn by his fellow countrymen of Afghanistan.

secretary; (standing) Nancy Lynes, historian; Jeffrey Lively, treasurer.

Achievement Means Fulfilled Responsibilities

CLASS COLORS: Forest green and white

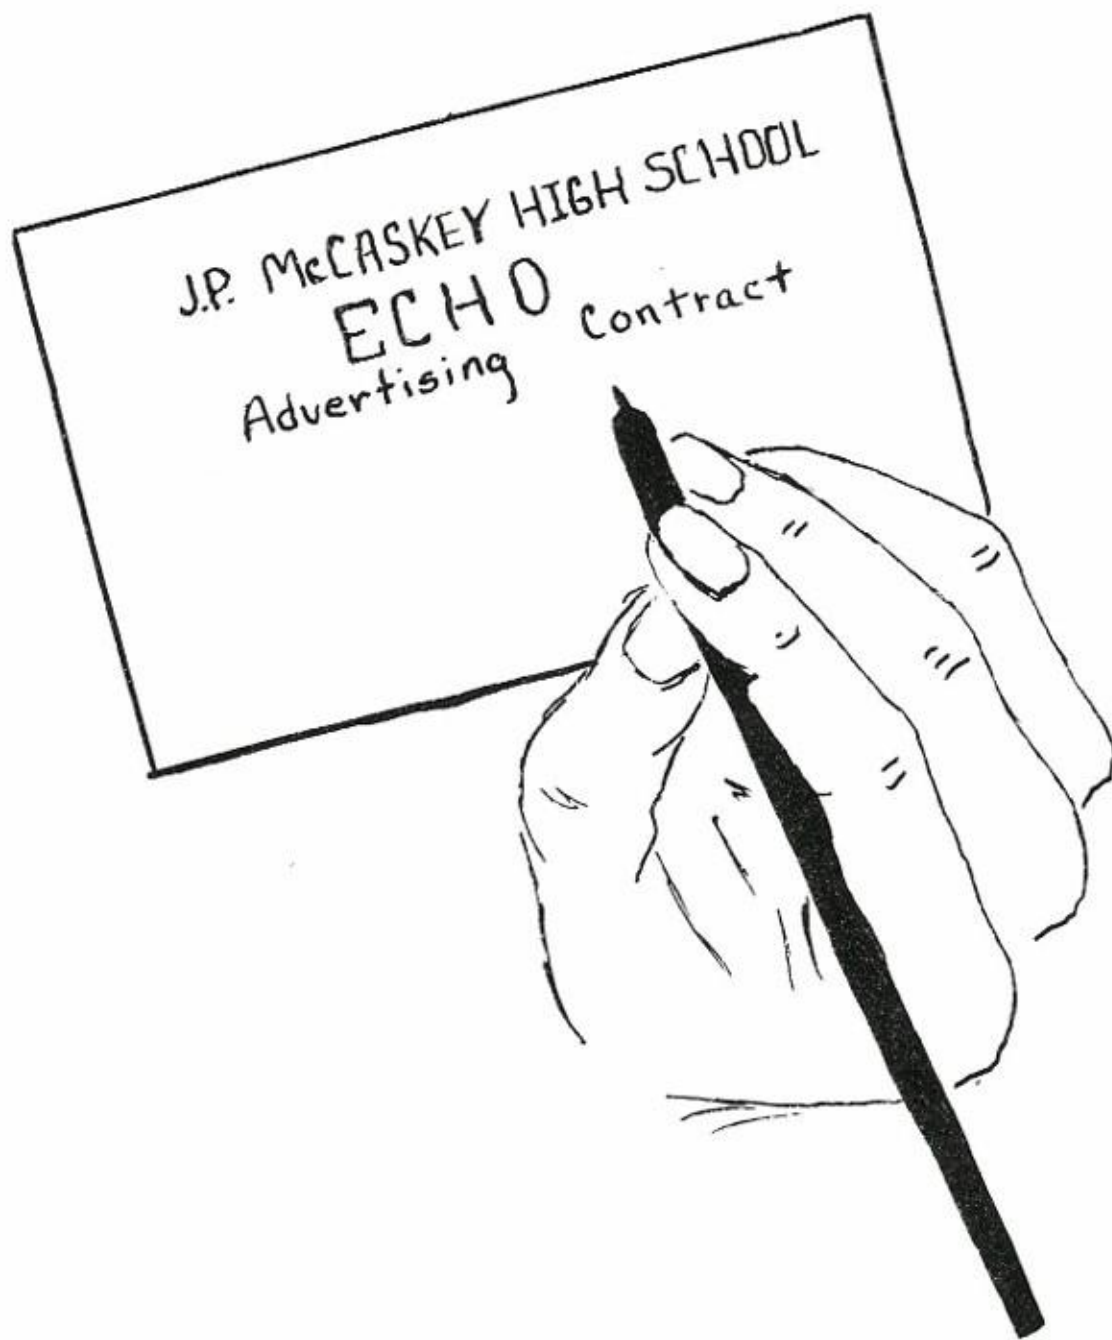

CLASS FLOWER: Red rose

MOTTO: To thine own self be true

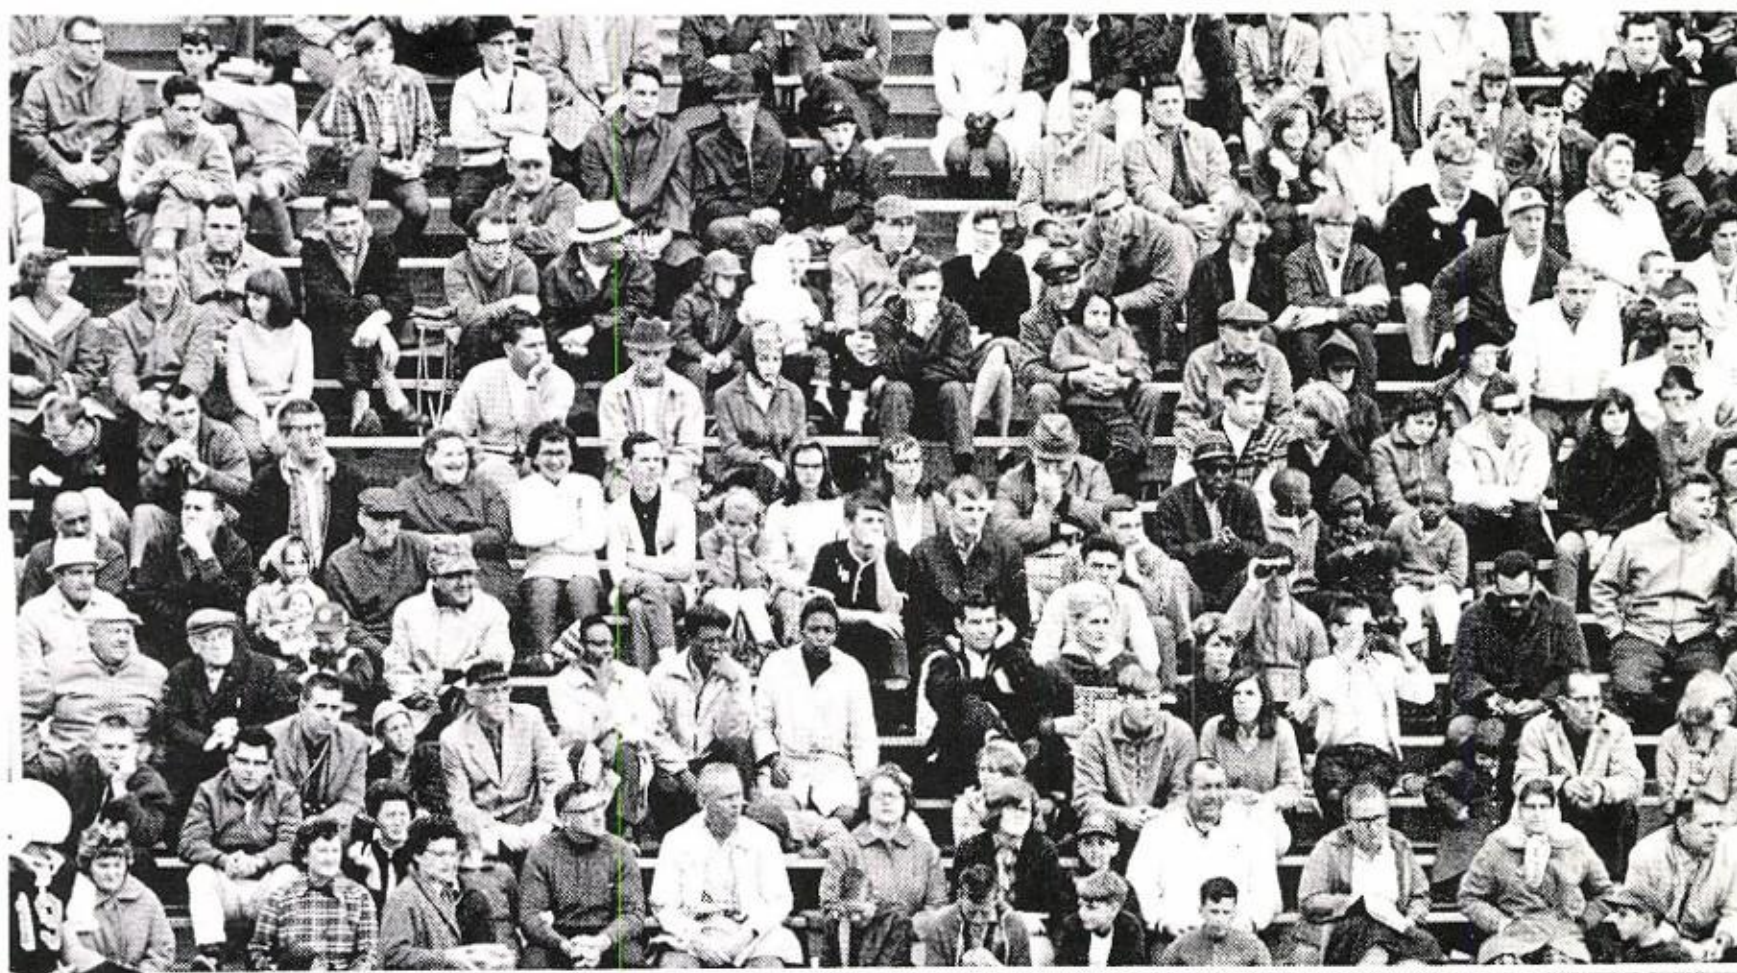

Right: Gus Photis and Deborah Smuck, co-chairmen of the Class Day Committee, study a list of senior volunteers for the assembly program.

They'll have the answers

Graduating students already know the value of the "right answer." It's been one of the keys to academic success for the past 12 years of their lives.

Coming up is a time for more right answers, beginning with one for the big question that faces all high school seniors, "Where do I go from here?" There'll be other big questions, too, requiring the same kind of careful study.

We have a good idea how most of today's young people will respond to the challenges and decisions that lie ahead. They'll do it with keen judgment and mature responsibility, blended with disciplines and lessons learned in the classroom. That's a combination that will be tough to beat.

So go forth, class of 1966, and start making your marks. We wish you fulfillment of all your ambitions.
